The story of the vanishing stock of J. Lichtenstein & Sons, who had dry goods stores in Grand and Twenty-third streets, and the reappearance of the stock in the store of Ehrich Brothers, is told at length in an action which has been brought in the Supreme Court by many judgment creditors, who have been whistling for their money. The Ehrichs are made defendants with the Lichtensteins, and the complaint sets out with this allegation;

"On and prior to the 26th day of December, 1804, the defendant's, Rebecca Lichtenstein Fiera Mintzer, Bessie Lichtenstein, Samuel W. Ehrich, and Julius S. Ehrich, combined and con spired with the defendants, composing the firm of J. Lichtenstein & Sons, to defraud the creditors of said firm, including the plaintiffs, out of their debts and demands against the said firm, and combined and conspired to enable them to get rid of their property, assets, and effects so that the plaintiffs and the other creditors of the firm would be unable to collect their respective demands, the details of which conspiracy and combination and the manner in which the same was carried out and effectuated are hereinafter

It is stated that on Dec. 26 last the Lichtenstein firm had a stock of goods worth from $275,000 to $300,000, which they sold in furtherance of the conspiracy to Enrich Bros. for $172,500. It is averred that Ehrich Bros. "secretly and in an unusual and hurried manner Bros., on Sixth avenue. • • the "greater portion of which removal was done at the night time, between midnight and 6 o'clock in the morning. All of this was done by the parties to the said transaction for the purpose of destroy-ing and wiping out whatever equity or title the judgment creditors might have in said prop-

The purpose of the sale is then declared to be "These plaintiffs further allege that as part of the combination and scheme as aforesa

"These plaintiffs further allege that as part of the combination and scheme as aforesaid it was intended at the time of the said transfer, and such was the purpose and object of the sale aforesaid, to use the money so to be acquired and paid by said Ehrich Bros. to the said Judgment dobtors in payment of fictitious claims and demands, and thereby set it out of the reach of creditors."

In furtherance of the conspiracy, it is declared, the Lichtenstein firm paid of the money received from the Ehrichs to Rebecca Lichtenstein, a sister of the Lichtensteins, $95,495.91 on a fictitious claim of hers against the firm. It is averred that she is unmarried and lived with some of her brothers. The firm gave to Bessie Lichtenstein, wife of Jacob Lichtenstein, also, as declared, on a fictitious claim, $55,648.74. To Flora Minizer they made two separate payments of $3,027.06 and $2,500. Her claims are also alleged to be fictitious. It is further averred that the members of the firm converted $20,000 to their own private uses, which of right belonged to their creditors. Another incident of the scheme was, as alleged, that members of the firm assigned life insurance policies amounting to $70,000 to Rebecca Lichtenstein and Flora Minizer belonged, in fact, to the firm. It consists of five parcels in 181st street, near Wadsworth avenue; two parcels in 211th street, near Ninth avenue, it is declared that the firm owns four-fifths of the interest in property in Eightieth street, near Fourth avenue; a parcel on Madison avenue, near Sixtisth street. The creditors who bring the action, in which Bumenstei & Hirsh appear as their attorneys, all of whom obtained judgments in the City Court last January and February, are:

J. S. Lowrey & Co., $459.82; Francis H. Aradid, $212.18; Louis Meyers & Sons, $1,159,24; Erian G. Hughes, $156.84; William Schroeder & Co., $1,033.90; Alfred Merian, $1,825.37; Susan Wolfsbruck, $237.92; John Menke, $432.07; H. A. Cassar & Co., $713.44; J. R. Simon & Co., $1,208.29; Elseman Rros., $2,308.20; Elseman R Aufmordt & Co., $1,268,29; Elseman Bros., $2,352,34; Ia S. Walton & Co., $1,199,88; Henry Newman & Co., $280,06; $1,09,48; Henry S. Wennan & Co., $280,06; $1,674,12; Morris A. Magner, $377,80; Richard Horstman, $359,32; Julius Wellle & Co., $1,165,77; Robert V. Lynch, $360,81; Castle Silk Company, $182,62; Dieckerhoff, Rafficer & Co., $1,365,76; James Talcott, $1,363,54; Julius Loewenthal & Co., $386,65, and Peter Banigan, $256,16.

They ask in their complaint that the sale of the stock to Ehrich Bros, be declared void and that Ehrich Bros, be ordered to account for all they have and what they may have sold of it. They want it declared that all the real estate mentioned in fact belongs to the firm or its creditors. They ask that the assignments of the life insurance be set aside for their benefit, and they want a receiver appointed of all the property and those who have any of it enjoined from disposing of it. HUNT'S BOOKS MUDDLED.

The Friends of the Musical Union's Secretary Will Make Good any Deficit. Alexander Bremer, President of the Musical Mutual Protective Union, confirmed the report sesterday that John Hunt, for five years Secre tary of the union, is in Montreal, Canada. Mr. liunt was at the office of the union at the Old Homestead, Ninety-first street and Third avenue, at 10 A. M. on Tuesday of last week, and, after taking away his private papers, left, it is supposed, for Canada. The books are said to be in a muddled condition, but if there is any deficit his bondsmen will make it good. The income of the union averages $1,000 a month. If there is anything wrong, Mr. Hunt's friends say, it was not through wilful dishonesty, and Mr. Bremer expressed the same opinion yesterday.

"After Mr. Hunt arrived in Montreal," said Mr. Bremer, "he notified his bondsmen and a few personal friends, who came promptly to us and offered, there and then, to make good all losses. Mr. Hunt wrote that he is almost crazy at the idea that his accounts are wrong. I am quite sure that he has not a dollar, as he always lived up to his income."

Ex-Secretary Hunt is a cornet player, and was paid $100 a month by the union. He also carned from $1,800 to $2,000 a year outside of this as a musician. He has a wite and six children. make it good. The income of the union aver-

MILES ROSS'S SONS INDICTED. They Thrushed Lawyer Berdine for His Speech About Their Father,

New BRUNSWICK, April 11 .- Harry and Robert Ross, the young sons of ex-Congressman Miles Ross, were indicted to-day by the Middlesex County Grand Jury for the assault upon Lawyer George Berdine, which took place on the night of March 27. Mr. Berdine was badly the night of March 27. Mr. Berdine was badly pommelled. There was a crowd around him, but none came to his aid. James Lyons a few days ago brought suit for criminal libel against Berdine and Muller, a special officer, for accusing him of being in the crowd. The Grand Jury to-day intellected them for criminal libel. The cases will be tried within a few days.

The Ross boys never denied the assault, but in a published communication explained that they whipped him because he attacked their sick father unjustly.

Trustees Appointed for the Stevens Indus trial School in Hoboken.

The recent gift of $26,000 by members of the Stevens family of Castle Point for the erection of a suitable building in Hoboken to be used as an industrial school has awakened considerable interest in that city. According to the terms of the offer the city must appropriate sufficient money to conduct the school.

As the State also appropriates half of the running expenses, contingent upon the city's paying its share, the trustees are appointed by the Governor. In order that the trustees may organize and accept the gift of the Stevens family, Gov. Werts has appointed the following persons as trustees: Idev. ricorge C. Houghton, County Superintendent of Schools: Mrs. Martha B. Stevens, Mrs. Caroline B. Alexander, City Treasurer, James Smith, William Keuffel, Thomas H. McCann, David E. Rue, and Edward Russ.

The trustees will meet for organization some time next week.

Killed at a Dance.

Jamestows, N. Y., April 11,-At Fluvanna, three miles from this city, John Rainey, an up-holaterer, simbbed and killed Fred Mitchell, a barber, early this morning. A feud existed tetween the men for several years. Last night they attended a dance at the Hotel Florence and drank quite frequently. At about 4 o'clock and drank quite frequently. At about 4 o'clock this morning Mitchell attacked Rainey, and, in the light which followed the latter drew a knife and slabbed Mitchell in the neck, severing the louding vein. Hefore medical sid could be obtained Mitchell bled to death. Hainey returned to the city and gave himself up. He asserts that he acted in self defence, and eye with eser of the tradegy say that Mitchell's attack was unprovoked. Hainey bears a good reputation, while Mitchell was of a quarrelsome nature. FICTORIA HOTEL DEBTS.

Stanfield Trust Funds Claimed by Paras Stevens Trustees. The sale of the Victoria Hotel furniture, which is advertised for April 19, was the subject of argument before Judge Beach in Supreme Court, Chambers, yesterday, upon a motion made by Charles Zabriskie, as counsel for the trustees of the Paran Stevens estate, to enjoin the sale and for the appointment of a receiver of the property. The object of the trustees is to prevent the assets of the late Mark M. Stanfield, who was formerly the proprietor of the notel, from being devoted to the payment of the debts of young Douglas Maxwell Stanfield, who managed the hotel up to a few weeks ago, when he was compelled to make an assignment.

Douglas Stanfield is a grandson of Mark M. Stan field, and under his grandfather's will received a large part of his property. The trustees of the Paran Stevens estate say that the Mark M. Stanfield estate owes them about $77,000 for rent of the hotel. Mark Stanfield's will created trust the hotel. Mark Stanfield's will created trust estates for several beneficiaries. This trust fund of $65,000 is also claimed by the trustees of Paran Stevens, who say that it was a part of Mark Stanfield's assets.

Judge Beach said that he would not interfere with the payment of the income of the trusts to the beneficiaries, although he would direct that nothing be done with the trust fund, and he also decided that the property in the hotel should be sold and the proceeds of the sale held by the assignes subject to the order of the court.

The schedules of Douglas Maxwell Stanfield show liabilities $108,113, nominal assets $150,-202, actual assets $34,573. The assets consist principally of the furniture in the hotel and in the house 48 West Twentieth street, hotel supplies, and some accounts due. The great difference between the nominal and actual value of the assets is because the furniture has greatly deteriorated, and the groceries and liquors at orced sale would bring only a part of their value. The actual value of legacies to which Mr. Stanfield is entitled after the death of certain life tenants he does not know and has been unable to ascertain. tain life tenants he does not know and has been unable to ascertain.

MOSS DEFENDS MOKE MURRAY. The Parkhurst Seciety Appears at the Pickpocket's Trial.

The trial of George alias Moke Murray for grand larceny was begun vesterday afternoor before Judge Fitzgerald in Part II. of the Cour of General Sessions. Murray is said to be the nost expert scarf-pin snatcher in the city, and was formerly known as a stool pigeon for the police. He is accused of having stolen the scarfpin of Henry Rothkonf a Broadway merchant on a cross-town car last fall, and is also under indictment for stealing a watch from Frederick Hoffman of 43 Mercer street. Murray was arrested, but jumped his bail, and was caught in Brooklyn. While locked up in Raymond Street Jail he had a long talk with Dr. Parkhurst, and Jail he had a long talk with Dr. Parkhurst, and ever since his removal to the Tombs he has been in almost daily consultation with the lawyers for the Parkhurst society, giving them, it is understood, his opinion of the police.

When the case was called for trial yesterday Lawyers Moss and Kennesen of the Executive Board of the Society for the Prevention of Crime appeared for the crook. Mrs. Ruggles, a missionary and Parkhurst detective, who first got Dr. Parkhurst interested in Murray, was also present. It is said that the Parkhurst lawyers are going to attack the Central Office detectives and probably Superintendent Byrnes and inspector McLaughlin. There were eight detectives in court: Detective Armstrong, against whom Murray seems to be especially vindictive; Detectives Carey, J. J. O'Brien, Heidelberg, Dowling, Dunn, Von Gerichten, and Reilly. All are prepared to testify as to Murray's record. Superintendent Byrnes, it is said, has been subpensed and the Parkhurst lawyers will endeavor to have a Lexow committee seasion on a small scale. When a jury had been secured the case

KILLILEA PLEADS NOT GUILTY. He and Probably O'Toole to He Put on Trial Next Monday. Police Captain Killilea, who is under indictment and suspension on a charge of bribery in accepting $100 for performing his duty more faithfully at the Vale-Princeton football game at Manhattan Field on Thanksgiving Day, 1802 was arraigned yesterday before Justice Barrett in the Court of Oyer and Terminer to plead, His Hugh Cassidy, Edward F. Miley, and John H. Thrall of the East 126th street station, indicted on complaint of Hans S. Beattle, also pleaded not guilty. District Attorney Fellows said that everything was ready for the trial of Inspector McLaughlin in the Oyer and Terminer on Monday, and that Sergeant O'Toole would probably be tried on the same day in General Sessions.

Sergeant O'Toole, who is accused of taking bribes from Whitehead, was suspended yesterday by order of the Police Board, and Sergeant Andrew J. Thomas of the West Twentieth street station was put in charge of the Essex Market squad. This gave rise to a report that Detective Sergeant William E. Frink, who is under the same charge, had turned State's evidence, and had, therefore, not been suspended. District Attorney Fellows said the report was without foundation. everything was ready for the trial of inspector

THE TROUBLES OF THE ISHAMS.

Courts Probable. The motion for entry of judgment on the verdict in the suit of Henry Hayward Ishan against Juliet Calhoun Isham for an absolute divorce, which was in favor of the defendant, came up vesterday before Justice Bartlett in the Supreme Court in Brooklyn. The hearing was put off until Wednesday on the announce ment of counsel that the differences at issue between the couple would doubtless be satisfactorily adjusted by that time. Since the tria

In the litigation over the seven-year-old son the Court decided that he should be alternately in the care of the father and mother.

Bridget Callinan, the cook in the Isham household, who was a witness for Mrs. Isham, and became insane over the prospect of having to go on the witness stand again, has recovered her reason, and was yesterday discharged from the Kings County Asylum.

AN ACTORS' NATIONAL LODGE. The Actors' Protective Union Wants to Extend Itself Over the Country.

Delegates are expected from Chicago, Boston St. Louis, and several other cities.

He told Judge Moore that he had spent the money foolishly with his neighbors.

The People's Traction Company Asks for the City's Consent. About 200 residents of the annexed district were present at a hearing before the Com-mittee on Reilroads of the Board of Aldermen vesterday on a petition from the People's Tracion Company asking for consent to the construction and operation of its proposed trolley lines of twenty-one miles in the Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth wards. It is to connect the New York, Westchester, and Connecticut Railroad, which is to run from the terninus of the People's Traction Company's system at the Bronx River to the Connecticut State line, a distance of about twenty miles, and which is to operate thirty-six miles of road altigether in Westchester county. Under the agreement passengers are to be carried from the Hariem River, or any other part of the system, to the town of Westchester for five cents, Congressman Franklin Bartlett presented the arguments in favor of the petition of the People's Traction Company. He said that its promotors were public-spirited citizens of the Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth Wards.

"The directors of the Union Railway Company," he said, "have come here to oppose this petition. They take the position that the annexed district belongs exclusively to them, and that nobody else is to be given a foothold."
